

Your First Week in Da Nang, Made Simple

VietPass Digital Welcome Kit

Quick Start: First steps after landing

Ride into town

Book a Grab from the airport (~150-200k VND / $6-8). Download the app here: iOS | Android.

Get cash

Use TPBank or VPBank ATMs to avoid high fees.

Get connected

Pick up a Viettel SIM (150k VND / $6 for 30 days).

Check in

Most rentals ask for one month's deposit.

Grab a coffee

Redeem your VietPass voucher for a free iced coffee.

Arrival & Basics

Airport & Transport: The easiest option is Grab. Fares to the beach areas average 150-200k VND. Ignore unmarked taxis at arrivals offering 'special deals.'

Money & ATMs: TPBank (purple) and VPBank (green) have the lowest fees and highest withdrawal limits. Expect ~30-50k VND ($1-2) per withdrawal. Always choose 'Continue without conversion' to avoid poor rates.

SIM & Connectivity: Viettel has the widest coverage, especially if you plan to travel outside Da Nang. Packages ~150-200k VND for 30 days of unlimited data. Buy from official shops. eSIM available for newer phones.

Where to Stay & Daily Life

Neighborhoods

- An Thuong – Nomad hub, packed with cafés, gyms, and co-working spots.
- My Khe Beach – Quieter, more residential, still close to the action.
- City Center (Han River) – Cheaper rents, authentic markets, lively local vibe

Essential Apps

- Grab – Rides and food delivery
- Zalo – Vietnam's #1 messaging app (landlords often use it)
- Shopee/Lazada – Online shopping, delivered to your door
- Google Translate – Camera mode is a lifesaver for menus and signs

Health & Safety

- Family Medical Practice – 24/7, English-speaking clinic
- Vinmec International Hospital – Modern, private hospital
- Hoan My Dental – affordable, reliable dental care

Lifestyle and Community

Cafés with WiFi

- 43 Factory Coffee Roaster – Specialty coffee, big work tables
- Roots Plant-Based Café – Healthy and nomad-friendly crowd

Co-Working Spaces

- Enouvo Space – Popular with expats
- IoT Coworking – Affordable, central, and community-oriented

Food to Try

- Bánh mì – Vietnam's famous baguette sandwich.
- Mì Quảng – Local noodle dish, unique to Da Nang.
- Bún chả cá – Light, flavorful fishcake noodle soup.

Perks and Extras

VietPass Perks

- Free iced coffee at our partner café — just show your NFT pass.
- Curated Google Map with pinned essentials: ATMs, SIM shops, gyms, coworking spaces, the best bánh mì, trusted visa agents.
- Invite to the private VietPass community group for tips, meetups, and support.

Quick Tips

- Cash is king. Many small shops don't take cards.
- Cross the street slowly. Traffic flows around you, don't run!
- Say 'Xin chào' (hello) and 'Cảm ơn' (thank you). Locals appreciate it.
